

Letter of Recommendation for Colby Ingram

To potential coaches and/or employers of Colby,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Colby Ingram, who has been a remarkable student and athlete in my classroom and on the baseball field for the past several years. As both his teacher and coach, I have had the privilege of observing Colby's development, commitment, and character, which I believe make him an outstanding candidate for any program or institution.

On the baseball field, Colby epitomizes the qualities of a true competitor. He is hardworking and approaches both practices and games with enthusiasm. His love for the game is evident in the effort he puts forth daily, and he consistently reflects on his performance to improve. Colby is not only a dedicated player but is also supportive of his teammates. As a Freshman, Colby received minimal playing time on the field, but he remained enthusiastic in the dugout, was always prepared to enter the game, and ready to perform any task asked of him. Colby uplifts those around him and helps to create a positive environment on and off the field.

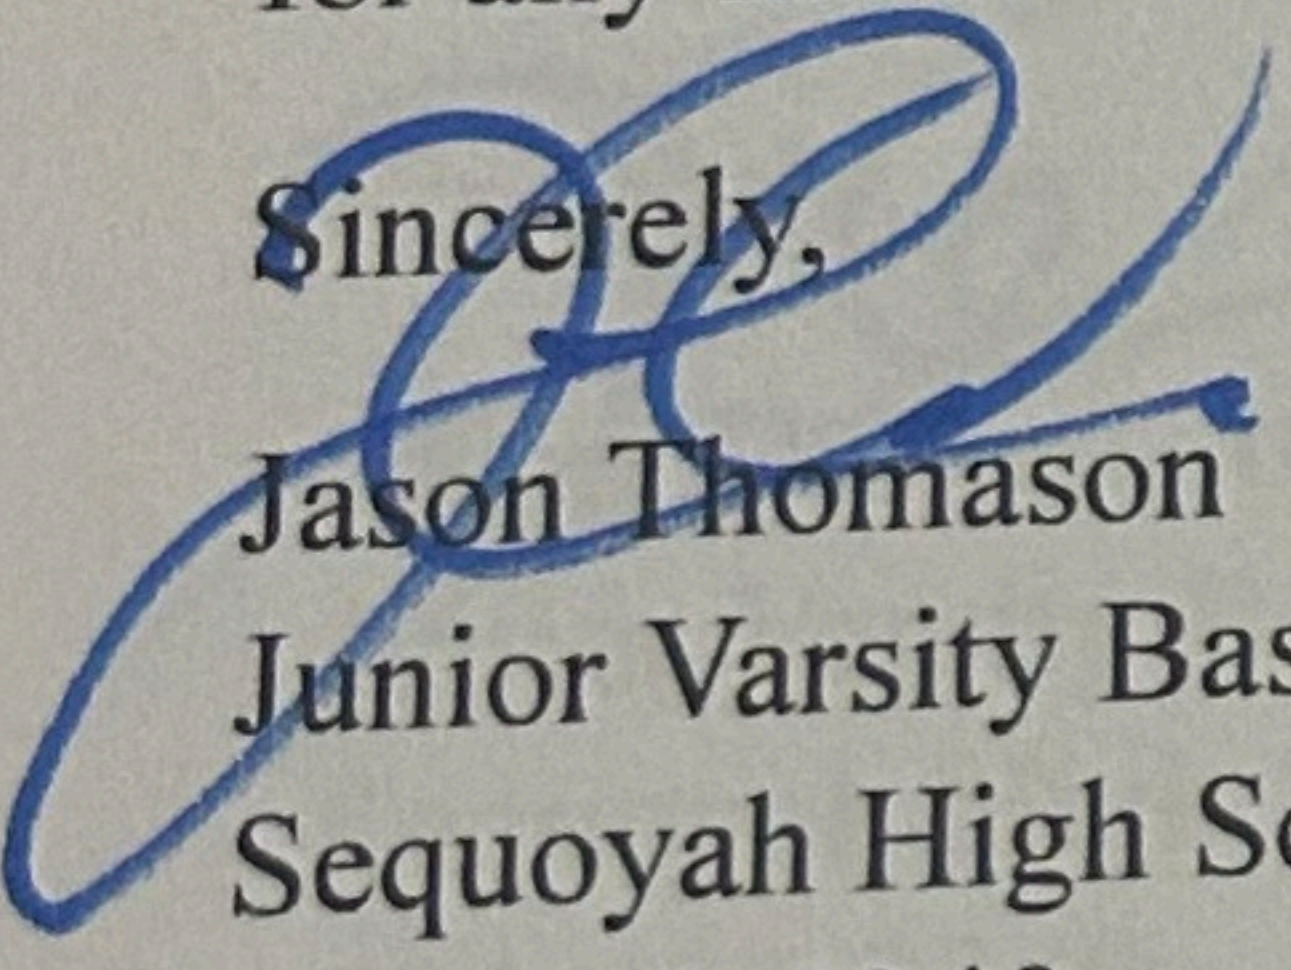

As a Sophomore, Colby took advantage of his opportunities and led the Junior Varsity squad in batting average (.425), on base percentage (.540), OPS (1.065), and runs batted in (11). As a hitter, Colby displays power to all fields, making him a challenging out. He thrives in clutch situations, demonstrating remarkable composure when there are two outs and runners in scoring position. His situational awareness and high baseball IQ contribute to his effectiveness as a defender, enabling him to excel in various positions, including the corners and outfield. In addition to these traits, Colby stands out as a pitcher. He has a quiet and poised demeanor on the mound and remains calm and unfazed by pressure. This mental fortitude, combined with his physical abilities, makes him an asset to any team.

Academically, Colby is a diligent student who recognizes the importance of his grades, demonstrating a strong work ethic in the classroom. He balances his athletic commitments with his studies, proving that he can excel in both areas.

As a person, Colby is one of the finest young men that I have had the pleasure to teach or coach. He is consistently supportive of his teammates and classmates, always ready to lend a helping hand or share a laugh. His good-natured spirit and sense of humor create a welcoming atmosphere, making him a joy to be around.

In summary, I wholeheartedly recommend Colby. He embodies the qualities of a dedicated athlete, a hardworking student, and a compassionate individual. I am confident that he will continue to excel and make meaningful contributions to any community fortunate enough to have him as a member. Please reach out to me for any further information.

Sincerely,

Jason Thomason

Junior Varsity Baseball (Head Coach) / Varsity Baseball (Assistant Coach) / World History Teacher

Sequoyah High School

404-433-3240